

Children's day at PDM 2011

On Thai Children's Day, the kids of our employees gathered at our plants for recreational activities. Our staff also gave them a guided tour at different stations at the plant where they could receive some candy or small gifts from the workers there.

Late in the day, the children enjoyed the meal and joined a drawing competition that we hosted. The winner received a prize before all children went home.

Phoca PDF

Phoca PDF